

Total Prize Value $32,000

2024 (11th) KAAF Art Prize

The Korea-Australia Arts Foundation Prize (KAAF) is run annually in cooperation with the Korean Cultural Centre (KCC) which is run by the Korean government. Selected artworks will be exhibited at the KCC in Sydney.

The KAAF for 2024 is open themed and medium to 2D art works. This art prize has both acquisitive and non-acquisitive cash prizes totalling $32,000.

KAAF's main goal is to provide support for the Australian artists and take part in promoting and enhancing the multicultural society. It aims to act as a cultural liaison by networking and by bringing artists together from diverse ethnicities, from all over the nation.

Receipts will be emailed upon request. KAAF is GST exempt. Any cheques along with other entry documents can be posted to the following address: KAAF - 8 Parkwood Gr, West Pymble NSW 2073 A $1 fee applies for all types of credit card/PayPal transactions.

Entry Requirements

Apart from online entries, email or postal entries must be accompanied by a completed entry form, cheque or payment receipt (for bank transfers) images, and a short CV (optional, max 1 page). Artworks must be of participant's original and completion date must be later than January, 2023. Artworks must not have been selected previously for a prize involving monetary awards. A maximum of two entries, each entry limited to one digital image can be entered. Single image must not exceed 5MB in size and must be in JPG format. All images must be labelled adhering to following format: Title - Artist First name Surname. Maximum size: 152cm/60", minimum: 51cm/20" in width/height including any frame and multiple parts such as diptychs/triptychs are accepted but must be within size limits. All works selected must be sent with hanging fixtures attached and be marked clearly on the back with the artist's name and title of work. If required, special hanging fixtures must be supplied at time of delivery with clear instructions eg D-rings. Selected artists must provide their artworks to the Korean Cultural Centre (KCC) for the entire exhibition period otherwise their place as a finalist will be forfeited and opportunity be given to the next runner up.

Artists or their representatives may not remove any artwork from display prior to 17th January 2025. Finalists will allow their works to be reproduced in print and in electronic formats for the purpose of advertising and promoting the art prize. The KAAF and KCC will not be held responsible for any loss or damage sustained to artworks whilst in its possession and artworks will not be insured hence it is upto the individual to seek cover. The KCC being run by the Korean government, cannot engage in promoting sale of artworks however will not prevent any sales from occurring during the exhibition. All personal information gathered by KAAF will be used solely for administrative purposes and will not be shared. Finalists will be announced on KAAF website kaaf.org.au on evening of Sunday, 20th October 2024.
